

TRUSTED ADVISER

Shustak & Partners, P.C. Congratulates “Young Attorney” Finalist George C. Miller, Esq.

We are pleased to announce that our senior associate, George C. Miller, Esq., has been named a finalist for the San Diego Daily Transcript's “Young Attorneys” list.

From thousands of attorneys in San Diego, George was selected by his peers as one of the best and brightest in the county. In addition to being named a “Young Attorneys” finalist, George recently was selected as a 2015 “San Diego Rising Star” by SuperLawyers®; was a semi-finalist for the Transcript's “Top Attorneys” Corporate Litigation category in 2014; was named “Best of the Bar” for 2014; and was nominated as a top “Young Attorney” in both 2012 and 2013.

A New York native, George moved to Texas in grade school and went on to attend The University of Texas at Austin where he graduated with honors in 2004. He then graduated summa cum laude from Thomas Jefferson School of Law in 2008. While in law school, George earned numerous high-grade awards and served as both an articles and notes editor for the Thomas Jefferson Law Review. He joined Shustak & Partners, P.C. as a law clerk in 2007 and is now a senior associate in the firm’s San Diego office.

George’s practice focuses on securities arbitration, litigation and regulatory proceedings and business and employment litigation. Since joining the firm, George has helped recover tens of millions of dollars for the firm’s clients and successfully defended brokerage firms, businesses and individuals against many high stakes, multi-million dollar claims. In his spare time, George enjoys cheering on the Texas Longhorns, sailing, brewing beer, playing guitar and spending time with family and friends.

About Shustak & Partners, P.C. – Business & Securities Lawyers

Shustak & Partners, P.C., is an AV-rated law firm with offices in downtown San Diego, Irvine, San Francisco and New York. We represent broker-dealers, registered investment advisers, brokers, publicly traded companies, local businesses and high-net-worth individuals in a wide variety of business, securities and financial disputes, including securities and financial fraud claims, breach of contract claims and complex employment disputes. We also have extensive experience handling intellectual property, trademark and copyright disputes. Our attorneys routinely appear in courts throughout the United States and before the American Arbitration Association (AAA), FINRA Arbitration Division, the National Futures Association, JAMS, the International Chamber of Commerce and other forums throughout the country and around the world.

Handling SEC And FINRA Investigations And Enforcement Proceedings

Our Firm is well versed in handling securities regulatory and compliance matters on behalf of brokerage firms, financial advisers and individuals. Our Securities Practice Group defends against SEC and FINRA examinations, investigations and enforcement matters, assists with various compliance and risk management projects and is there to advise you in internal investigations. SEC and FINRA investigations, inquiries and enforcement proceedings are on the rise. Our firm is ready and well equipped to handle your securities regulatory and compliance needs.

We Serve Those Employed In The Securities Industry

If you are employed in the securities industry, our firm is your strongest ally. We have extensive experience representing registered representatives, associated persons, investment advisers and financial planners in employment disputes, broker-protocol, non-compete and trade secret disputes, recruitment and transition disputes, Form U4/U5 disclosure and expungement matters and other securities industry matters. We recognize that one of the most challenging aspects of a registered representative’s career is moving from one broker-dealer firm to another. To that end, our attorneys have extensive experience counseling brokers in transition from one firm to another and handle a wide array of recruitment disputes, including forgivable loan or “golden handcuff” matters.

Big Firm Capability With A Personalized Approach

Though we are proud of our aggressive approach to litigation and ability to handle large, complex cases, our clients appreciate our firm’s friendly “boutique” atmosphere. Our corporate lawyers, business lawyers and securities arbitration lawyers will give your problems the utmost attention and strive to deliver the results you need. Our offices in San Diego, Irvine, San Francisco and New York City allow our attorneys to handle cases all over the country.
